

CONSULTING GROUP

Mile Marker #555 - Elizabethton

Running a race takes time, practice, and dedication. The same applies to offering a retirement plan. The Investment Advisory Services Team, at USI, is ready to help you meet the challenge of optimizing the value of your retirement plan.

INDUSTRY LEADERSHIP, OBJECTIVE ADVICE TO OPTIMIZE THE VALUE OF YOUR RETIREMENT PLAN

USI Advisors, Inc. is a Federally Registered Investment Advisor offering investment advice primarily to retirement programs and endowments. Unlike traditional investment advisory organizations, our organizational structure gives you the flexibility to either choose USI Advisors, Inc. for stand-alone investment advisory services, or to combine those services with any of USI Consulting Group's other departments' services.

As a national benefits consulting firm, USI Consulting Group provides a true holistic approach to investment consulting.

This means that clients will have experts in all areas of qualified plan management (defined contribution, defined benefit, legal and compliance) to support the entire spectrum of best practices.

Elizabethton is a city in, and the county seat of Carter County, Tennessee, United States.

Elizabethton is the historical site of the first independent American government located west of both the Eastern Continental Divide and the original Thirteen Colonies.
